

You'll find some websites listed below to help begin the rental search. These are the same websites that we, at PorchLight use to find available rentals. Using the next three ways to search will allow you to find the local resources and properties who may not advertise. This is a very effective way to search especially in areas where there aren't many rentals. In areas where there are lots of rentals, the apartment and private rental websites are a great starting point.

1 www.yellowpages.com search for:

- real estate, city/state
- property management, city/state
- apartments, city/state

2 www.google.com search for:

- local newspaper's classified
- rentals, city/state
- property management company, city/state
- apartments, city state (go to map view each apartment building will be listed on the map, you can click and go to each one's web site)
- chamber of commerce, city/state

3 Chamber of Commerce on the local web site, go to the member directory and look by category at:

- apartments
- property management
- real estate
- rentals
- or call to see if they have a list of rentals

Apartment Management Websites

- www.aimco.com
- www.amli.com
- www.avaloncommunities.com
- www.bozzuto.com/apartments
- www.camdenliving.com
- www.corcoranapts.com/
- www.equityapartments.com
- www.fairfieldproperties.com
- www.gables.com
- www.greystar.com
- www.lincolnapts.com/communities
- www.postproperties.com
- www.princetonproperties.com
- www.villagegreen.com
- www.windsorcommunities.com
- www.winn/companies.com

Regional Subscriber Websites

- www.westsiderentals.com 📱 (California)
- www.sublet.com
- www.streeteasy.com 📱 (New York City)

Things to Remember

The pros associated with using national housing rental websites like Trulia, Zillow and LiveLovely are that they pull from national websites like Craigslist, real estate databases (MLS), rent.com and Postlets. However, there are cons to them as well. They often miss local websites and property management companies not listing in real estate databases (MLS). They are often obsolete and are not removed once they have been rented.

The pros with using national apartment websites like apartments.com, rent.com or forrent.com are they list apartments throughout the United States. The cons are the listings shown are limited to those that advertise with them.

📱 = APPs available for these sites.

Apartment Search Websites

www.rent.com

www.apartmentguide.com

www.rentals.com 📱

www.mynewplace.com 📱

www.forrent.com 📱

www.apartmentfinder.com

www.apartmentcities.com

www.move.com/apartments

www.petfinder.com/after-pet-adoption/pet-friendly-apartments-online.html

www.apartments.com 📱

www.peoplewithpets.com

www.walkscore.com 📱

Private Rental Websites

www.realtor.com 📱

www.rentals.com 📱

www.rentcafe.com 📱

www.rentalhouses.com

www.hotpads.com 📱

www.homerentals.net

www.militarybyowner.com

www.zumper.com

www.trulia.com 📱

www.zillow.com 📱

www.livelovely.com

www.invitationhomes.com

www.craigslist.org 📱

click on state, then city - under Housing, click Apts/Housing